

DISH

DEAR MAN

Lux Interior from the Cramps gives advice that goes down smoother than Midol.

Q: Okay, so what's the protocol on dating your step-siblings again? (Just met, never lived together, in our 20s.)

—Tina, Charlotte, N.C.

A: I believe that dating should be kept within the immediate family to avoid unnecessary contact with strangers and for the hatching of more interesting offspring.

Q: How can I convince my sweet, sensitive boyfriend to be rougher in bed? —Gwen, Miami

A: Insult his mother, spit pea soup in his eye, tell him you need an exorcism.

Q: If someone you are interested in eats a mint during your conversation or when you're about to leave, is that a sign they want to kiss you? —Suzi, Las Vegas

A: No, usually this is a sign that they're taking mint-flavored drugs.

Lux's question for you:

Q: My girlfriend wants sex too often. How can I convince her to wait until the wounds heal?

A: Shut up and pop some Viagra. —Lindsey, Washington, D.C.

Buy the Cramps' new album, Fiends of Dope Island, and send Dear Man questions to joshua.lyon@fairchildpub.com.

This is not what we thought his bedroom would look like.