New York Rock Scene

DOC AT WORK: Lenny Kaye types outside of CBGB's as Punk Mag editor John Holmstrom and Miriam Linna of the Cramps stand-by. The Doc says he enjoys working out of doors on occasion. (Pic: Bob Gruen).

INNER SANCTUM: Richard Robinson checks out some of Bob Gruen's Polaroids in Bob's office as Bob shutters this pic.

CRAMPS Go To A

Is Lux just paring his nails, or is it something more sinister? We'll find out, as we have another adventure with The Cramps.

The Cramps relax at home. Bryan, Miriam, Lux, and Ivy often sit around listening to their favorite 45's.

Stephanie snaps a pic of Bryan as he heads out into the night.

The Cramps hit the street.

First thing is to call their favorite luncheonette and see if they're still open.

Luncheonette . . . Oh Joy!

Yup, they're open. Bryan and Lux mull over their java while Miriam sips her soda and Ivy checks out the desserts.

We've heard of coffee and danishes to go, but what could Kasey's make up to go that went in a bag from Banker's Trust?! □

Gold Wings

Wing's "Wings Over America" bring Gold and Platinum record awards to Jimmy McCulloch, Linda McCartney, Paul McCartney, and Denny Laine. Kneeling left to right are Joe English, and Capitol Executive Manager of European Operations Brian Shepherd. Photo was taken in the London studio where the band was recording their new album. □
